***This New Adult book is intended for audiences over the age of 18 due to adult language, sexual content and adult situations*** Kit Logan wants to know my name, but I can't tell him. I can't tell him anything. There are too many people looking for me. He's pretty persuasive, though, and he convinces me to go home with him so he can keep me safe from this harsh city where I find myself. It's not my home. It's his. He belongs. I don't. Logan lives with four brothers in the inner city. Yet I've never felt more safe than I do when I'm with him. I want him. But he won't let me have a darn thing, aside from his friendship, unless I'm willing to tell him my secrets. But they're mine, and I can't share them. Not unless I want them to come and get me. Logan She catches my eye because she's so beautiful she takes my breath. But that's not all that I love about her. I love the way she smells. The way she smiles. The way she plays the guitar is unlike anything I have ever seen. She sleeps in my bed every night, and drives me crazy with her touch. But I can't take what she offers because I need all of her. I need for her to tell me her secrets. I need for her to trust me. From the back of the book: She's locked up tight. But he might be the key. Logan Reed is tall, tatted and tempting. Kit's a woman with a mean right hook and a secret. Kit wants a tattoo, but Logan sees more than she intends to share in the drawing of the tat she wants. He sees her in ways no one ever has. Logan's not disabled; but he hasn't spoken in eight years. He hasn't needed to. Until he meets Kit. Logan doesn't know everything about Kit. Kit doesn't know anything about herself, until she has to sacrifice all she ever wanted to save what's most important to him.

He knows the value of life. She's still learning. What would you do if you had one last moment to say goodbye? Would you take it?

The last one to fall... Sam Reed is the only brother in the Reed family who hasn't fallen head over heels in love. He has a promising contract to play professional football, but something is missing. Sam likes to watch cooking shows, snuggle on the couch, and he wants someone to do it with him. But with his go-getter lifestyle, it's almost impossible to find the time to get to know one woman. That is, until he meets the one who makes him want to change his whole life. A fake name and a world of hurt... When Peck was twelve, she was called by a different name, lived with a different family, and had no prospects whatsoever. But now she finds herself the drummer in an all-girl band, makes more money than she ever dreamed possible, and she's content. Until the day her birth mother shows back up. Fame. Fortune. Stardom. Neither of them wants it. They both have it. But can they have more? *** Recommended for adult readers only due to adult situations, sexual content, and adult language.

Ord, the descendant of Sister Alice, a member of a super race of humans who became part of an experiment that led to the destruction of countless worlds, is given the chance to right the wrong and embarks on an epic odyssey through time and space. Reprint.

When he met the Reeds, he was a gangly kid with bad teeth and even worse breath. He'd come from nothing, and he was pretty sure that was where he'd end up. Then he met the Reeds, and he was brought into the family fold. With gentle nudges, a little steady guidance, and a whole lot of unencumbered love from a family, he has finally found his place in the world. He just needs someone to share it with him. During the day, he's a mechanic at a high-end repair shop. Nights and weekends, he does good deeds for others. He's lonely, though, until she walks right back into his life, just like she never left.
