Unit trusts are unincorporated mutual funds that pass profits directly to investors rather than reinvesting in the fund. The investor is the trust's beneficiary.

Unit Trust (UT) Definition

Unit tests are typically automated tests written and run by software developers to ensure that a section of an application (known as the "unit") meets its design and behaves as intended. In procedural programming, a unit could be an entire module, but it is more commonly an individual function or procedure. In object-oriented programming, a unit is often an entire interface, such as a class ...
